News Release of April 10, 2017

Reappraisal Firm Continues Work in City

The contractor that is performing the reappraisal of the residential class of properties in the City of Alpena, Berg Assessing and Consulting, plans on starting inspections of houses in the area south of Washington Avenue and east of Ripley Boulevard, to Lake Huron, and the Long Rapids Road area including OxBow and Island View Subdivisions, on April 19, 2017, weather permitting.

Letters have been mailed to all residential property owners in these areas notifying them of the upcoming inspection. It may take several weeks to complete the inspections in these areas. To ensure fair and accurate assessments throughout the City, property owners are asked to cooperate fully with the inspectors.
